Navajo Nation Puppy Adoption Program

(Navajo Nation Veterinary & Livestock Program)

The Puppy Adoption Program is dedicated and committed to help solve the pet overpopulation problem on the reservation.

Our program rescues unwanted pets and places them in homes where they will receive constant and Consistent loving care.

Our goal is to strongly emphasize And increase awareness in the Navajo community that local animal shelters are good resources for pet adoption.

Finally, to promote the Puppy Adoption Program to the public as a professional and caring organization with many worthwhile programs.

Make a Difference-Become a Volunteer in Your Community!

To become a volunteer for the Puppy Adoption Program:

- Welcome puppy or puppies into your home for a minimum of 10-12 weeks, at which point they will be placed on an adoption truck to be adopted to families off the Navajo reservation.
- Clean shelter, food, and water.
- Give puppy utmost tender loving care!
- Take puppy/puppies to Vet Clinic for check up and vaccinations every 3 weeks.
